Cr Leslee Holmes
SHIRE PRESIDENT

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Cr Leslee Holmes
Ph. 0408 419 468

Another month in the Shire of Dandaragan and I can report that nothing slows down even though summer is on the wane and the really lovely weather is starting. I am always very proud of our crews of workers who keep our towns looking lovely year-round and some of the great comments we get from visitors are very rewarding, however, the work we do is not just for the visitors but for the residents as well so that they can enjoy living in our beautiful part of the world.

Upcoming Major Review of Strategic Community Plan

Every year the cost of maintaining our assets gets more and more expensive and so our team must work out a forward plan to make sure that the important things get done and we keep up with community expectations. We work very hard to make sure that your aspirations are heard and in the coming months our Shire team will be rolling out extensive community consultation as it once again undertakes a major review of Council's Strategic Community Plan.

Council's Strategic Community Plan is its overarching plan to guide our Shire over the next 10 years with a strong focus on our community's priorities for the future and I encourage each and every one of you to get involved in this process so that it is your collective long-term vision and aspirations that help form this very important document.

We also hope to launch our new community engagement tool, Engage Dandaragan, over the coming month. This website is a consultation site which aims to provide an opportunity for our community members to voice their feedback on our projects, in a safe environment. The website will be used as a communication tool for the Shire to provide the relevant information to the community with the aim to seek community input. We are excited to launch this new program to the community in the coming months.

Further information about this process will be circulated soon so keep your eye out to play your part.

New Depot Operations Building

I was honoured to be asked to officially open the new Jurien Bay Depot Operations Building last week. Replacing the outdated old depot building, constructed in 1985, this new building is long overdue. Not only are the workspaces and facilities functional, but the new building also assists in boosting the moral of staff attending work each day.

The building design was a collaboration between Shire staff, local Cervantes builder, George Mostert of Central West Building, Maroochi Engineering and Olympic Drafting based in Perth.

The new building was constructed by George and his team from Central West Building, with landscaping and reticulation works undertaken by members of the Shire's Jurien Bay Operations Team.

A significant number of local contractors were also involved in the fit out and civil works and I would like to extend my thanks to them all for their contribution. The use of local contractors continues to be very important to the Shire as it stimulates our local economy by helping to create employment opportunities for small business.

Key features of the new building include a central training room, desk space for each staff member, modern amenities, including laundry washing facilities for those staff working with emulsion and paint products, outdoor sink area, energy efficient design including sealed concrete flooring in the offices and training room, accessibility access ramp into the building, and accessible toilets, including showering facilities.

Cultural Borders Welcome

A good friend of mine bought a lady, Shaz, for morning tea a couple of weeks ago who has come to live and work here from Iran. Shaz comes from a comfortable family background in Tehran and has enjoyed a great education and work life there. I was very ignorant of the education system there and could not understand how she, a female was so educated. I had, in my mind, compared her to Iraq, Afghanistan, and other places in that part of the world but I could not have been more wrong. In Iran, it is a status symbol to educate women and that is something families aspire to, however, as we are all aware things in that part of the world are also very volatile and many of these girls who are single are seeking to get away from their country. Shaz told us many stories of growing up in Tehran and how she loved her childhood in the great city of 9 million people. The wider metro area is home to another 16 million which makes it the second largest metro population in the Middle East.

My new friend's family moved here some years ago and she is staying with them until she establishes herself in WA. I have been able to assist her in updating her CV which is so impressive I was sure it would not be long before someone snapped her up for a good job. That happened last week, and I was so thrilled for her as she will be a great addition to our country. When I got home from a very long day in Jurien Bay last week, I found a box of homemade biscuits on the doorstep with a lovely card thanking me for my help. We are so isolated here and it is very interesting to hear what goes on in the rest of the world, especially in Western Asia. Making new friends is such a joy for me and I love learning about the different ways of they live. It also is another reminder of how fortunate we are to have what we have here in Australia.

Recognising Indigenous Culture through Naming Project

We had a very interesting presentation from WA Community Arts on the Naming Project that they have been rolling out all over the State. This is an amazing opportunity for us to have the Aboriginal names alongside the current names and learn the stories and history of this region from their perspective. Professor Len Collard will lead the extensive research across our Shire and work with our community through workshops and activities to capture and uncover the true meaning of these places. We are very excited to commence this project.

UK Bound

Only 8 weeks to go and I will be off on a long trip to see my mother in the UK and we will be there to celebrate her 94th birthday at her cottage in Devon. I spoke to her on the UK's Mother's Day last week and she is in very good spirits and looking forward to seeing us. My sister has warned me that she is becoming quite frail but certainly not in her mind. She keeps in touch with everything that is going on in the world and is very interested in the current hot topic of an Indigenous Voice in Parliament and all its implications. I am sure we will enjoy many robust conversations when I arrive as Mum has some interesting views on the world and some of them very contemporary for someone of her age group. She is non-judgemental and always has been.

This attitude helps a lot when navigating all the changes to society she will have seen in her very long lifetime. I hope to be able to share with you some interesting angles when I get back.

A Sorrowful Passing

Before I go, I just wanted to acknowledge the recent passing of a much loved, long-term resident of Jurien Bay, Samantha (Sam) Ward. Described by her husband, Chris, as "a ray of sunshine in the community", Sam had been waging her battle against Stage 4 cancer for some time now following her diagnosis back in late 2021. Sam sadly passed away on 17 March 2023, leaving behind her beloved husband and their three beautiful young girls - Bridget, Scarlett and Lanette. Chris is a Shire employee who has worked within the organisation for over 9 years, and I know he has a lot of support from his colleagues, as well as the many family members and friends here in Jurien Bay and further afield.

On behalf of all Councillors and Shire employees, I would like to take this opportunity to extend our deepest sympathies to Chris and his family and may their cherished memories of Sam's bright and bubbly nature, and beautiful smile, help see them through this difficult time.

In Loving Memory - Samantha Ward

THE LEEUWIN OCEAN ADVENTURE FOUNDATION STS LEEUWIN II

The Leeuwin Ocean Adventure Foundation STS Leeuwin II Youth Explorer Voyage is a week-long ocean voyage for young people with a sense of adventure.

The Shire of Dandaragan invites young people in the Shire to apply for the Shire of Dandaragan Leeuwin Scholarship. The Scholarship assists with funding for passage on a Leeuwin Ocean Adventure for one recipient.

The Leeuwin operates under the principle of "challenge by choice" - the level of the challenge is up to each individual. 35 years of operation clearly demonstrates that the more each participant is willing to challenge themselves, the more they take away from the experience. Our mission for this scholarship is to challenge and inspire young people to realise their personal potential and make a positive contribution to the wider community, through the unique medium of a tall sailing ship.

If you or your parents live within the region and you are between the ages of 15 – 18 years we would like to hear from you. Take up the challenge and make an application for a personal development program on board the Sail Ship 'Leeuwin'.

Lifelong friendships will be forged as you work together, grow together and have an enormous amount of fun together. You'll be amazed at what can happen in just 7-days. For more information and to apply, go to the Shire of Dandaragan website Youth page. We also welcome teachers, adults, community groups or other mentors to assist young people to apply for this scholarship.

Applications close 4pm Wednesday, 31 May 2023. No previous sailing experience is required for any Leeuwin Ocean Adventure voyages

The Smoke Column

Open Burning Season

Saturday 1 April will see the opening of the unrestricted burning season in the Shire of Dandaragan commence. Whilst you do not require a permit to burn, your responsibilities when undertaking burning remain.

You must not:

- Light a fire and leave it unattended.
- Light a fire at the Shire's 72-hour short stay reserves.
- Light a fire on a beach.
- Light a Camping or Cooking Fire at an approved location, including sandy cape, if not properly contained by a purpose-built structure (fire drum)
- Light or maintain a fire during a Total Fire Ban.
- Light a fire which you don't have sufficient resources to control.

It is recommended that you only burn off on days where the fire danger is not "High" or above, and that you register your burn on www.emergency.wa.gov.au by calling 9395 9209 five minutes prior to commencing. This will prevent unnecessary calls to 000 and strain on volunteer firefighters attending false alarm calls.

Lastly, don't forget to inform your neighbours, as the smoke may impact certain health issues, or they might prefer to hang their washing out on another day.

Smoke Alarms

Does April 1st mean anything to you? Besides it being a day of fun filled pranks for April Fools Day, it also marks a historically important day for fire services Australia-wide – that's right, it's time to change the smoke alarm battery.

Don't be a fool, don't wait for it to start chiming at odd hours of the night due to a flat battery, it's a small price to pay for something that might well save your life.

Total Fire Ban Breach

A Shire of Dandaragan property owner has recently been prosecuted and fined $2,500 plus court fees, for the unlawful lighting of a fire on a day subject to a Total Fire Ban.

Volunteer firefighters were called to the property after a passer-by saw smoke and flames coming from several piles of vegetation and called 000. The individual admitted they had wilfully lit the fires before extinguishing them shortly after the fire brigade had arrived. Most of the district was subject to a Total Fire Ban on the day as temperatures soared above 40 degrees and winds peaked at over 40km/h.

The Shire urges all of its residents to be aware of the requirements when undertaking burning and/or fire mitigation activities. A range of resources are available at <https://www.dandaragan.wa.gov.au/services/emergency-management/bushfire.aspx> and <https://www.dfes.wa.gov.au/hazard-information/bushfire/total-fire-ban>, the information can be a useful tool to assist residents and property owners in understanding these requirements. If you are uncertain, contact the Shires Emergency Management Coordinator on (08) 9652 0800 for more information.
